

Cleanse The Blood Banish Rheumatism

Rheumatism Due to Bad Blood. S. S. S. Your Remedy

Thousands have been made well. People in the poorest health, suffering from rheumatism, with whom pain was constant. Who believed that their vitality was sapped beyond repair. It was proven to them that the cause of their trouble was the blood; that Uric Acid, the most faithful ally of Rheumatism, had gripped them. The poison in the blood had sapped its strength. The weakened blood had allowed poison and impurities to accumulate, and all energy was gone. They felt "poorly," were listless, pain was ever present, with poor digestion and dyspepsia. They tried S. S. S., nature's blood tonic. They gave up drugs. This compound of nature's remedies of roots and herbs did what drugs failed to do. It literally washed the blood free from poison, and with the flow of pure blood came back health, strength, vigor and happiness. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. Insist upon S. S. S. If yours is a long standing case, write for special advice to S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga., but begin taking S. S. S. at once.

"MR. M'GOWAN"

FOR EFFICIENCY

South Carolinian, Head of Big Bureau Shows Why He Succeeds.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Admiral Samuel McGowan, United States navy, as "Sam McGowan," as he is familiarly known among his friends and home people, today started something brand new in official circles here. Tiring of being addressed by all kind of meaningless titles, he issued a statement requesting that hereafter he be addressed as plain "Mr." McGowan.

"Mr." McGowan's order, which is most unusual for a man with such rank as he has attained, is as follows: "To All Officers and Chiefs of Sections, via Assistant to the Bureau and Civilian Assistant:

"1. During the course of the last official weekly inspection of the bureau of supplies and accounts I was variously addressed as 'Admiral,' 'General,' 'Paymaster' and 'Chief.'

"2. Wherefore I should be much gratified if there might from this time forward be uniform observance of the following notice issued to (and initiated by) all officers and others shortly after I came here in July, 1914:

"As 'Paymaster General' is a long and somewhat cumbersome term by which to address anybody orally, I shall particularly appreciate it if you will please call me 'Mr. McGowan.'"

The last issue of The Army and Navy Journal contains the following editorial on Mr. McGowan's work:

"Wide and helpful publicity has been given to the successful business administration of Paymaster General McGowan of the navy. It is an excellent thing to have civilian commercial interests seeking to copy the business methods of our officers. Appropriations will be made all the more readily when it is recognized that ability as well as honesty is displayed in high administrative posts. Happily the country has always been able to consider honesty a distinguishing hall mark among the officers of our naval and military services, but many civilians have thought of the bureau chiefs as rather innocent old gentlemen or incarnate bundles of red tape. The public likes the type of paymaster general who says: 'Make it a bureau with a small b and a navy with a big N' Also: 'Remember that the stores exist for the fleet, and not the fleet for the stores.'—The State.

SUFFERER FROM INDIGESTION RELIEVED.

"Before taking Chamberlain's Tablets my husband suffered for several years from indigestion, causing him to have pains in the stomach and distress after eating. Chamberlain's Tablets relieved him of these spells right away," writes Mrs. Thomas Casey, Geneva, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

Miss Gregory Complimented.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. J. M. Markley was hostess at a beautiful tea, given in honor of Miss Estelle Gregory, an attractive bride-elect of the past week.

Cards were received at the door by little Misses Hallie McCuen and Martha Medlock, while Mrs. DuPont Guerry and Mrs. Elrod McCuen showed the guests into the drawing room, which was beautifully decorated with pink dahlias and ferns.

The hostess, guest of honor and Mrs. H. C. Walker received in the room. Miss Gregory was beautifully gowned in a creation of peach blossom material with trimmings of silver lace, and wearing silver slippers. Mrs. H. C. Walker wore pink crepe, with gold trimmings, while the hostess was most attractive in a gown of green chiffon over yellow with gold trimmings.

From the drawing room, Mrs. Frank League and Mrs. Sam Ray, of Columbia, ushered the guests into the dining room, which was beautiful in the rich, warm color scheme of red, a profusion of red salsvia being used. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Guy Foster poured tea, while Miss Ruby Markley of Atlanta, and the Misses Howard passed sandwiches.

In the large living room, the yellow motif was beautifully shown by quantities of marigold and yellow candles.

From an attractive booth in this room, Mrs. Joseph James and Mrs. Lucian Earle served punch.

Over one hundred ladies called during the afternoon.—Greenville Daily News.

BERLIN INVESTIGATES FAY.

No Officer in Germany Army by That Name.

Berlin, via London, October 31.—A special investigation by the German military authorities concerning Robert Fay, under arrest in New York charged with conspiracy in connection with an alleged plot to blow up ships carrying supplies for the Entente allies, and who has declared that he was a lieutenant in the German army, was followed by a statement from the authorities today that there is not now and never has been an officer called Fay in the German Army.

HOLLY GROVE NEWS.

Holly Grove, Oct. 25.—Mrs. James Compton, nee Pearl Moore, formerly of Laurens, now of Raleigh, N. C., is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mrs. Compton is a charming young woman and we are delighted to have her with us. Her husband is connected with the United States weather bureau.

Mrs. Alice Day Compton, a former resident of Holly Grove section, now of Greenwood, visited relatives and friends here last week.

Mrs. Francis Templeton, a surgical nurse of Atlanta, spent the week-end with her mother.

Mrs. Clarence Moore has been quite sick with fever but is convalescing.

Mr. Cal Templeton, who was very sick with typhoid is better.

Our young friend Mr. Floyd Gamble who passed successfully the ninth grade of the Bailey high school, is now attending the city school.

A PINE WHOOMPING COUGH REMEDY.

Mothers, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is just the remedy for your children's cold ailments. The fact is that pine is a quick enemy of cold conditions. Its qualities loosen the mucous in the throat, soothe the lungs and open up the air passages. The combination of honey, soothing and pleasant, with the loosening pine quality makes this an ideal cough remedy for children. Each passing year brings for it, new friends. A family of growing children cannot afford to be without it. 25c at bottle.

TROOPS ALONG THE BORDER.

Guard Strengthened as Precautionary Measure.

El Paso, Texas, Oct. 31.—The 3,500 United States troops stationed at Fort Bliss were distributed tonight along the international border, east and west for thirty miles as a precaution against any movement from across the border should Villa and United States troops clash at Douglas.

A cavalry detachment is held as reserve at the fort and increased provost guard is patrolling the Mexican section of El Paso.

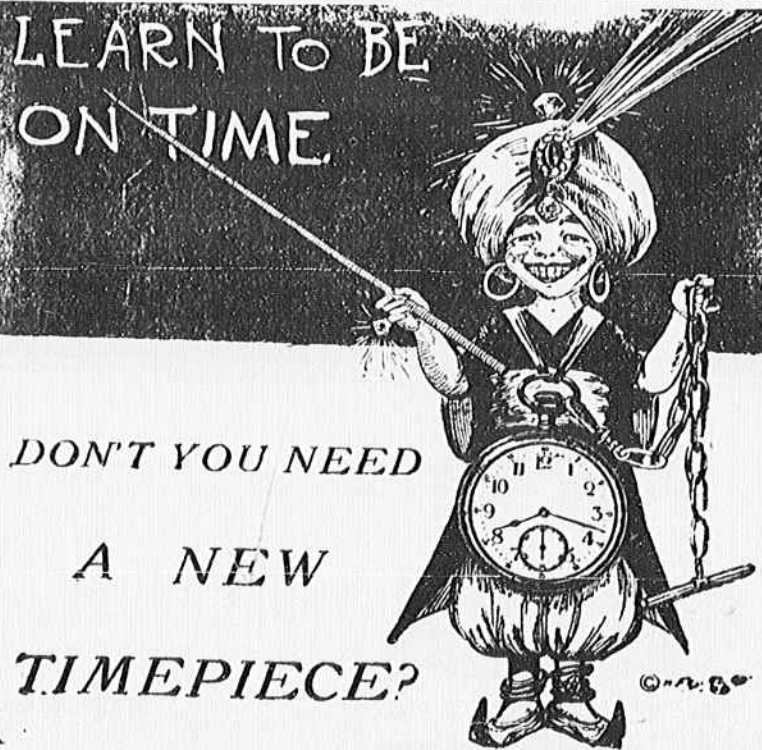

Emplacements for six batteries have been prepared on the Mesa, above the city, commanding Juarez, to which guns may be rushed within five minutes.

HER SON SUBJECT TO CROUP.

"My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, New Kensington, Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." Obtainable everywhere.
